- 아이들의 나이뿐만 아니라 인지 발달 단계를 고려하여 단계별로 책을 구성하였습니다. 언어 사회학, 아동 사회학, 아동심리학, 교육학, 영어동화 전문가 등 각 분야의 전문가들과 함께 아동 발달 과정에 따른 적합한 영어 동화책을 제시하고 있습니다.
- 수십 년간 영어 동화책을 판매하고 수업에 적용하면서 교육 현장에서 성공을 거둔 작품들을 바탕으로 아이들이 외국어로서 처음 영어를 배우게 될 때 가장 유익한 영어동화로 엄선하였습니다.
- 오디오를 통해 정확한 발음을 들을 수 있고 다양한 방법으로 책을 접할 수 있습니다. 낮은 단계의 동화책은 노래와 챗트에 중점을 두었고 좀 더 긴 내용의 동화책은 성우의 정확한 Reading을 들으며 이야기를 이해할 수 있도록 구성하였습니다.
- 풍부한 Online Contents, Guide로 아이와 부모님, 선생님이 효과적으로 상호 작용을 할 수 있습니다. 유치원, 초등학교 프로그램은 물론 공공기관 및 교사 양성 프로그램에 효과적으로 활용되고 있습니다.
- 도서 정보와 다양한 자료가 웹사이트에 제공됩니다. (www.pictory.kr)

GENRE WRITING REALISTIC FICTION

Plan: Choose Your Topic
Writing Prompt Write realistic fiction about a character in a family. Show how the character's feelings change. Use your ideas from page 35. Complete these sentences to help you get started.

My characters are _____
 At the beginning of the story, _____
 In the middle, _____
 At the end, _____

Quick Tip
 Your audience, or readers, may include your classmates or family. Think about how to make your ideas interesting and fun for them to read.

Purpose and Audience Some authors write realistic fiction to entertain their audience. They may also want to show how people learn and grow. Think about why you chose your characters. Then explain the purpose for writing your story in your writer's notebook.

Plan: Organization
Develop Sequence Authors think about the order, or sequence, of events in a story. Read the chart below. Write first, next, and last to show the sequence of events.

_____, the backyard gate is open.
 Annie's puppy is gone!

_____, Mom and Dad help look for Daisy.
 They hear a bark.

_____, they see Annie's friend Gina. She is holding the puppy! "Daisy wanted to visit my yard," Gina laughs.

Quick Tip
 Some words and phrases help show that the story is moving from one part to the next. You can use words like first, later, then, after that, whens, finally, and in the end.

Plan In your writer's notebook, make a chart like the one above. Fill it in with details about what happens at the beginning, middle, and end of your story.

In an instant she is swept into a net. It drags her down, down. She needs to surface to breathe. The boat pulls, tumbling her to the back of the net. She is almost out of air—when she slips through an escape hatch. She is free!

Months before, weathered hands had seen that hatch onto the net, just so sea turtles could escape. Shaken but safe, Turtle swims on. She meets a male turtle, and they mate. Later, under a summer moon, Turtle swims toward the breaking waves.

The sharks pursue her. No hands can help her now. She swims faster and faster—and finally escapes! But she does not see a shrimp's nets rushing toward her.

Turtle, Turtle, watch out!

Carlos's Gift

Carlos wanted a puppy in the worst way. He dreamed about puppies—big ones, little ones, spotted ones, floppy ones. One it was his birthday, and Carlos had one thing on his mind: A puppy. When Mama headed him a flat, square box, Carlos almost started to cry.

It was a book about caring for dogs. Papa smiled. "You need to learn how to care for a puppy before you get one." Carlos read the book then right. He found a photograph of the exact kind of beeping puppy that he craved. He eagerly showed Mama the next morning.

"That kind of dog is too expensive," said Mama. Noticing his crestfallen expression, she added, "Try getting some money. Ask our neighbors if they have jobs you can do."

Mama's suggestion made Carlos start optimistic. He could save up for the puppy of his dreams.

After two weeks, Carlos had saved twenty-six dollars. It seemed like a fortune. But it was not enough to buy a puppy. Then Papa pointed out a poster at the inner City Animal Shelter Needs Your Help!

"The shelter takes care of abandoned pets," Papa said. "Carlos, you can learn a lot by working there. Let's visit."

At the shelter, Miss Jones, the manager said, "We only take volunteers who work for free. All our money is devoted to helping animals."

"You'll learn a lot about dogs," Papa urged Carlos.

Carlos's shoulders slumped. How was he ever going to accumulate enough money for a puppy? Finally, he agreed to give it a try.

Engage Lesson 2 Plant Survival 71

Survival Structures

Plants have structures that help them survive, grow, and meet their needs.

Some plants have thorns or prickles. These sharp structures stop animals from eating the plant.

The corpse flower releases a strong smell like rotting meat. This smell attracts insects. The insects spread its pollen.

When the leaves of the dandelions plant are touched or broken, they fold inward.

Chestnut seeds grow inside prickly husks. This structure protects the growing seed.

ENGINEERING Connection Copy the structures of a plant to solve a human problem. Explain the problem and draw a sketch. Use separate paper.

Reading

1 Read the text quickly and answer the questions.

1 What do you think the best title is?
a The Most Popular Outfits Today
b Changes in Fashion Over the Years
c The History of Gold

2 Why do you think the author wrote this text?
a To entertain the reader.
b To convince the reader to buy more clothes.
c To inform the reader about how fashion changes.

Fashion has changed a lot. Fashion designers think of new designs, and famous people's clothes become popular. We also enjoy old styles that were popular twenty years ago.

How long have people used rings and necklaces?
Jewelry has been popular for thousands of years. In ancient Greece, people wore necklaces made of metal and stones. They were made of gold or silver and were very popular with them. Twenty years ago, it was more common for women to wear jewelry. Now, rings, bracelets, necklaces, and earrings are popular with men, too.

How people always used combs
Combs and brushes have been important for a long time. First, they were made of many materials, like gold, silver, or wood. In 1862, there was an inventor: a comb made of plastic. Now, most combs and brushes are made of plastic.

What materials are clothes made of?
Materials for clothes have changed a lot, too. In the past, people wore clothes made of real fur from animals. Now people prefer materials a lot more so designers have used more synthetic materials in recent years.

2 Read the text again and check (✓) or cross (X).

1 In ancient Greece, people didn't wear necklaces.

2 Jewelry is made of lots of materials.

Level 5 Unit 8

Integrated Learning: Art

1 Read the text and match the headings to the paragraphs.

1 Expressing identity with clothes.

2 Are art and design different?

3 Working together.

4 Design to help people.

5 The history of art in fashion.

Art and Design

People say that we make art to express our identities, and we make designs to help other people. But how have art and design been connected?

Clothes design can be very functional. We can design clothes made of warm materials, like wool, to wear in cold weather. Belts made of leather are strong, and umbrellas made of plastic help keep us dry. But fashion isn't just functional.

Fashion shows us how important art is in our outfits. People wear earrings and necklaces that match, or rings made of gold and silver. A striped or spotted tie isn't functional, but it helps the person express their identity.

Today, some fashion designers and artists work together to make unique accessories. These include belts made of new materials with incredible silk artwork. You can find umbrellas made of plastic with beautiful prints. Even shoe designers add to their own artistic masks.

2 Read the text again and answer the questions.

1 What is a basic definition of design?
We make designs to help people.

2 Why might clothes made of wool be functional?
Wool is warm.

3 What can matching jewelry or a spotted tie express?
It can express a person's identity.

4 Have clothes always been connected to art?
Yes, they have.

5 Why were the first clothes made?
To keep people warm.

6 How have fashion designers and artists worked together?
They work together to create unique accessories.

3 Research and present.

- Fashion designer or brand.
- How long have they been popular?
- What do they make?
- What materials do they use?
- Artistic traits in their designs.

I am going to talk about... This fashion designer makes...

lit-tle star, how I won-der what you are.

'ROUND THE CLOCK
(Tune: Twinkle, Little Star)

Round the clock the hours go,
Sometimes fast and sometimes slow,
Tell me what the two hands say,
They will tell the time of day,
Eight o'clock, it's time for bed,
Come with me you sleepyhead.

(Twelve o'clock, it's time to eat.
Come with me, we'll have a treat.)
